About Community Links Bromley

We are the leading infrastructure organisation supporting the voluntary, community, and social enterprise (VCSE) sector in Bromley. Our Volunteer Centre plays a vital role in connecting individuals and organisations, promoting volunteering, and building stronger communities.

The Role

We're looking for a passionate and strategic Volunteering Development Manager to lead and grow our Volunteer Centre. You'll manage a small team and work closely with the Chief Executive Officer to develop and deliver high-quality volunteering opportunities and practice across the borough.

This is a fantastic opportunity to shape the future of volunteering in Bromley, working with local communities, businesses, and voluntary organisations to increase its profile and accessibility and promote its benefits.

You will have a minimum 3 years' experience managing volunteering projects, with strong communication and digital skills, and experience in partnership working and volunteer supervision. You'll bring your experience of developing and managing successful volunteering projects, building and maintaining relationships with a range of statutory and VCSE organisations.

Why Work With Us? You will be part of a passionate team making a real impact; lead and develop innovative projects that empower communities; have flexible working hours and supportive environment, with opportunities for professional development.
